

A. Term length.

A voucher has an initial term of 60 days. The term of the voucher is the amount of time that a family has to find approvable housing. Vouchers will expire 60 days from the date of the issuance unless the NBHA suspends or extends the term of the voucher. The NBHA may at its discretion issue two thirty-day extensions.